Welcome to May – the I-don’t-know-what-to-wear month! The chilly morning breeze is long forgotten at lunch and as soon as the sun starts to descend you look for a shawl. The leaves are turning to beautiful shades of orange, brilliant red and rusty brown. Cocktails are starting to make space for a warm cup of tea and salads are turned into warm cups of soup, deliciously prepared with love by Mom.

For 364 days a year, a mother works non-stop! Work, feed, clean, nurture, discipline, drive, wash, support, encourage, console, love – it is a never ending job! But at least once a year, on Mother’s day, she deserves to be spoiled. Coffee in bed, a freshly picked flower and some pampering might be exactly what she needs. Skip the laundry and make the dishes a team effort, while Mom sits feet in the air of course.

To those fortunate enough to have a mother, grandmother and daughter, you are truly blessed!

1. Pre-heat oven to 180ºC.

2. Cut the crusts off all slices of bread. Put 3-4 together just slightly overlapping and press the seams together using your fingers to seal. Repeat with remaining bread.

3. Spread chocolate spread over each piece of bread. Lay pieces of banana over the chocolate spread. Roll into a tight roll.

4. Place each into a greased baking dish with high sides.

5. In a large glass, jug whisk together eggs, cream, milk, sugar and 1 tsp vanilla until smooth. Pour over spirals and let soak for 10-15 minutes until completely absorbed.

6. Bake in the oven for 40 minutes until puffed up, golden brown and cooked through. Cover with foil if it gets dark on top too quickly.

7. In another jug whisk together icing sugar, milk, melted butter and 1/2 tsp vanilla.

8. Pour glaze over while still warm.
